

PROGRAMME FUNDED BY THE EU

IDEAS ON FUTURE TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE COVERING 30 APRIL 2016 - 2020

Name: Nana Pirtskhelani, Country: Georgia

28 April 2015 - Tbilisi

BUILDING PARTNERSHIPS FOR ENERGY SECURITY

General Directions of Future Regional Technical Assistance:

- Enhance security of supply;
- Support infrastructure development;
- Promote energy efficiency and the use of renewable resources;
- Attract strategic investments;
- Improve legislative environment;

Following activities are needed to be implemented:

1. Provide expert facilities and export best practices of the European countries in order to enhance further integration existed regional and sub-regional energy markets and accelerate market convergence process.
2. Organize meetings on regional level for further enhancement of cross-border trade and encouraging the adoption of common technical standards.
3. Deliver technical assistance for the assessment of existed investment environment in the region and identify obstacles in order to contribute creation more friendly business environment for investments.

Energy Sector Priorities for Georgia

SUBSECTOR AREA	Conventional Energy	Nuclear	Petroleum & Gas	Renewable Energy	Energy Efficiency
Legislation			Harmonization of legislation	Harmonization and adoption of legislation	Adoption of legislation
Governance
Institutions
Regulation				For new electricity market model
Market Operations
Technical
Environment

Country Specific Technical Assistance

	Specific Technical Assistance is needed	Reasons
1	Harmonization of legislation, facilitate implementation of 2 and 3 rd energy package requirements.	to support Energy Sector Reform process towards full membership of the Energy Community.
2	Accelerate energy market convergence process through the improvement market rules and regulatory framework.	To develop the energy market in conformance with the principles set out in the united European energy market system.
3	Develop stable regulatory framework for the new electricity market model	To support regional market integration process.
4	Provide assistance in sustainable energy development process and facilitate energy investments.	To integrate in energy networks of the European Union and fully utilize the country's transit potential.